Introduction
All praise is due to Allah. We praise Him, seek His assistance and forgiveness and we seek refuge with Him from the evil of our souls and our misdeeds. No one can mislead whosoever Allah guides and none can guide whosoever Allah causes to go astray.

I testify that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah alone. He has no partner. I also testify that Muhammad (peace be upon him) is His slave and Messenger.

Lesson : 25 Biography of Muhammad
(peace be upon him)

Our beloved prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was born in the year 571 ce in the month of Rabia-ulawal in the year of the elephant.

Before the prophet was born, his father Abdullah passed away. His father was sent on a trade journey where he became very ill and passed away near yathrib. Yathrib later became known as Madina when the prophet (peace be upon him) went there.

When the prophet was born there was much joy in household of Muhammad (peace be upon him). His mother Amina had already suffered the loss of Abdullah but was overjoyed at the birth of this beautiful baby. Straight away they took him to his grandfather Abdul Mutallib, who named him Muhammad – the praised one.
Muhammad was loved by everyone he came in contact with throughout his life. He spent his childhood tending sheep on outskirts of Makkah. When he grew up he went on trade journey for a widow by the name of Khadija. Later they both got married and lived happily for many years.

When Muhammad was 40 years old, the angel Jibral came to him in the cave of Mount Hira. The angel revealed to the prophet the first fine verses of the holy Quran. The Quran was revealed over a period of 23 years.

The verses were collected and are known as Holy Quran which we have with us today. Not even a single word or letter has been changed since the Quran was revealed 1400 years ago.
